PERSONS TALKED ABOUT

Mrs. Joseph Anderson of Des Moines Ia., whose Indian name is "Wompucaca," a poor washerwoman, will receive from the government $50,000 for land once owned by her forefathers.

Ralston Roberts Coffin, who was the youngest man who ever rowed in a variety boat at Poughkeepsie, and a member of the Columbia football team of 1889, which defeated Yale, died recently in New York.

The Marquis de Gannay, joint tenant of Beaufort Castle, with the W.
K. Vanderbilt, has taken a high place among lady sporting shots. One day her bag was 40 brace of grouse, the second largest in the party.

The hospital of which Dr. Martha G. Ripley is in charge is said to have the lowest death rate of any institution of the kind in this country or Europe. It is the maternity hospital of Minneapolis and has been running for 60 years.

Prof. George E. Vincent of the University of Chicago, who is planning a flying trip through England in an automobile, with the expectation of making the circuit of the island in eight days, has been dean of the faculties of art, literature and science in the university since 1907.

Miss Gertrude MacArthur, daughter of Rev. Robert S. MacArthur, pastor of the Cavalry Baptist church in New York, has been admitted a teacher of English in the peeress school at Tokio, Japan. The school has only the daughters of the nobility for its pupils. A daughter of the mikado is being educated there.

King Edward is a clergyman, although few people seem to be aware of the fact. He is prebendary of St.
David's, in Wales, and gets a salary of $5 a year. He is entitled to preach one sermon a year in the cathedral.
He is also a member of the English and Irish bars and a member of the Royal college of physicians.

A meteor has been photographed by Mrs. Williamina Paton Fleming, head of the photographic department of the Harvard Observatory. The spectrum is five times larger than that of any other meteor noted by astronomers. It is also one of the only three meteors that have been photographed.
It shows 25 lines in its spectrum, and is five times larger than the largest previous one, photographed five years ago.

LEAVES MONUMENT BEHIND.

Body of Bristol Seaman Who Was Killed in Australia to Be Brought Home.

Mrs. Wallace H. Young of Bristol, who has been endeavoring to have the body of her son, Fred London, brought to this country from Albany, West Australia, where he was buried last September, has received word from that place that through the efforts of the United States consul general at Melbourne, arrangements have been made to have the body exhumed and shipped to Bristol, where he will be interred at West Cemetery.

Seaman London, who was a member of the crew of the U. S. S. Illinois, was killed last September while coasting ship at Albany, West Australia. Two bags of coal fell on him while he was going down the ladder and he lived but a few hours. The crew immediately raised over $400 and purchased a beautiful monument which was placed over his grave. This has necessitated considerable delay, as it had to be removed before the body could be exhumed.

Mrs. Young will endeavor to have the memorial brought to this country some time, but it is a very expensive task, the freight and freight being about $200 and the monument will have to be entirely taken apart and reset.

Mr. London was a Bristol boy and educated in the Bristol schools. He served in the regular army and did duty at the Philippines during the Spanish-American war. — Waterbury

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

A Reminiscence.

Mr. Editor: Overhauling old papers last week, the writer came across the enclosed invitation to a "Christmas party" at Palmer's Wharf, dated almost sixty years ago, reviving old memories as soothing as the sweet music of David's harp to Saul's chafed spirits.

"Christmas party at Thames hall, Palmer's Wharf, Dec. 25, 1852. Your company, with ladies, is respectfully solicited. Managers: William Church, C. G. Rawson, J. C. Palmer, B. S.
Beckwith, N. G. Johnson, Henry Rathbone, Isalah Rathbone, Edwin Comstock, Mason Jennings, Thomas Elmore, Samuel Miner, Rowen Stodard. Floor managers: William Church, J. C. Palmer. Music by Cady's Quadrille Band."

How well yours truly remembers the mainly face and womanly grace that made the scene fair to look upon, and he again seemingly hears the fall of the tripping feet, and "balance all!" But now silver threads mingle in the dark tresses of a few, very few, now living—how many?—and the others sleep peacefully, unmindful of the overhead green sod. While the few remaining look smilingly backward on life's track and hopeful, as they glance forward to its goal, trusting the "Great Pilot" for a safe port.

And now, if The Bulletin will kindly pardon this innovation, the writer would like to say a word in apology for his "sin of omission" in his letter of last week, in not giving credit to the few very few—members of "Legislature 1903." Among them Senator Alsop from Avon, and the member from Glastonbury, J. W. Payne, who are not mere units on a caucus list, but on the contrary have individual freedom in their minds, and the courage of justice in their hearts, and undaunted by trial and failure are still ready, despite legislative injustice, to fight for the people's rights.

To those who ignored the wishes of the people in the "Legislature of 1903" the writer would also apologize. If he has said anything that he is sorry for —he is glad of it!

J. W. MILLER.
Bristol, Conn., Aug. 4th, 1903.

The Wonderful Feature.

Mr. Editor:—In today's Bulletin Mr.
Charles H. Talcott calls attention to a remarkable number, 142,857, with which I have been familiar for years, but which I never saw before. The figure, 142,857, when multiplied by 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6, the same figures appear each time in the same order, but occupying different positions.

Can any of your readers give a number in a set of figures as remarkable as the above?

E. P. ROBINSON.
Packerville, Conn., Sept. 1, 1903.

A Problem.

Mr. Editor:—I notice that Mr.
Charles H. Talcott is quite a mathe-matician and presents very curious figures. I would like to have Mr. Talcott solve the following mathematical problem: Given $1,000—no more, no less. Loan it men $100 each and have $10 left. The answer is, to find how the 11 men can give the debt they contract with only $1,000? This is a practical, every-day problem, and I hope Mr. Talcott, or any other expert on figures will solve it.

J. C. VALLETTE.

FOSTER SCHOOL.

Eleventh Annual Reunion Held at Hampton—Twenty-one Respond to Roll Call.

The eleventh annual reunion of the Foster school was held at Hampton Thursday, September 2, and was a most successful one. In the morning a reception was held and at noon an excellent dinner was served.

School opened at 1 o'clock with Auld Lang Syne. This was followed by a welcome address by given by Dr.
James E. Stetson of New Haven. He paid high tribute to Mr. Foster and his success as a teacher, narrated many pleasant reminiscences of high school days and of incidents passed beyond the Great Divide.

In response, the veteran teacher spoke of the joy it gave him to meet again his pupils after more than fifty years.

A paper, entitled In Memoriam, was read by Sarah A. Tiffany, after which Edward B. Bennett told of the noble and useful lives of the Tannor boys and William H. Bennett, who passed away last year.

Roll Call.

The roll call was answered by twenty-one members in various ways.
Allen Jewett recited Launch of the Ship, and Lord Allen's Daughter, and several other poems.

George Starkweather and Joseph Starkweather gave musical selections.
The former sang and Jacob played the violin.

Recess announced, dancing began.
Money music was led by George Holt, a boy of fourteen years.

Students were present from Montreal, Canada, Nebraska, Worcester, Northampton, Mass., Putnam, Willamantic and nearby towns. It was voted to meet next year. The class flower was the sweet pea.

RARE INDIAN CURIOS.

Destroyed During Recent Fire in Rockville.

The recent loss by fire of the large and valuable collection of relics, relics, owned by L. E. Thompson of Rockville, was most unfortunate. The collection included thousands of pieces, and had been for some years at Mr.
Thompson's rooms on Union street, but was stored at the lower landing building at Snipe's lake, as he needed the room for other purposes. Mr. Thompson had been at work on the collection for over 20 years, and it included the most complete collection of Indian relics ever secured in this section of the state, and especially of value as connected with the Indian history of Ontario county. He secured nearly all of them in the vicinity of Snipe's grove and Snipe's lake. The collection included a great variety of implements of war, cooking utensils, arrow heads, and the like. He had over a peck of stone ax heads of all sizes. History shows that there were no tribes that inhabited the shores of Lake Snipe, but it was the favorite hunting and fishing grounds for a number of different tribes, who often spent much time on the shores of the lake. The Indians in the southern corner of Massachusetts called "good hunting ground." They made their camps usually on the eastern shores, near what is now known as Sucker brook. The Nipmuck Indians, who had their main settlement in the southern corner of Massachusetts, largely controlled the hunting grounds about the lake, although the Podunk Indians, from the neighborhood of East Hartford and East Windsor often hunted there. The collection included a good array of arrow heads of all sizes, many being of black flint stone, and that stone is not found within 500 miles of the lake. He had a large collection of money and coins from many countries, minerals, implements of war and many curios from all parts of the world.

Bitten by a Monkey.

Miss Mary Louise Fitzgerald of Greenwich is suffering from injuries received from George Boie's pet monkey. She was walking towards the barn at the rear of her apartments.
She saw the monkey tied to a post and did not think his rope was long enough to reach her. The animal sprang upon her left arm, biting her in several places before she could beat him off. Then he sprang across at the other arm and bit her six times.
His arm is swollen and she suffers excruciating pain.

HAS WON DISTINCTION.
Bethel Man Captain of Winning Turret Crew.

Daniel P. Mulvihill, son of Patrick Mulvihill of Bethel, who is a turret captain of the battleship New Hampshire, has won distinction in the navy as being in command of the turret crew that won the prize in the recent target practice off the Virginia Capes, incidentally breaking the world's record for hits made at the distance 2,500 yards. The ship's record was eight hits in one minute and fourteen seconds. The ship at the time was rolling about four degrees and going at a speed of 12 knots at the time of the shooting. The target was at a distance of 2,500 yards and was 21 feet by 12 feet in dimension.

For the exceptional record made Captain Mulvihill and his crew receive a prize of $1,000 from the fleet, to be divided among them, as well as a bonus or prize of $120 from the ship, the New Hampshire. Captain Mulvihill is now serving his second enlistment in the service of the United States navy.
He served his apprenticeship and was graduated from the gun and torpedo school second in his class.

Home from Lengthy Trip.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Rice and daughter, Miss Helen Rice of Meriden, have returned from a 9,000 mile trip over the country. They went through the southwestern states on the Santa Fe, stopping at the Grand Canyon in Arizona, and then continuing to Los Angeles. From there they went up to the coast of Seattle, stopping at San Francisco and Portland.

To Admit Parochial School Pupils.
The Winsted town school committee at a meeting Thursday evening decided to permit graduates of St. Anthony's parochial school to take the entrance examinations to the town school, to enter that institution of learning. The trustees of the Gilbert school are agreeable to the action taken.

WOULD YOU TAKE POISON?

No sane person ever does; and yet you may be breathing it every hour in the day and night in not having your house properly poison for you and your family to inhale.
